

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO AT BOULDER COLLEGIATE SPORT CLUBS CODE OF CONDUCT

All students and coaches of the University of Colorado at Boulder Collegiate Sport Clubs program must adhere to the behavioral guidelines set forth by University's official Code of Conduct located at:
<http://www.colorado.edu/studentaffairs/judicialaffairs/code.html>.

The purpose of the student Code of Conduct is to maintain the general welfare of the University community. The University strives to make the campus community a place of study, work and residence where people are treated, and treat one another with respect and courtesy. The University views the student conduct process as a learning experience that can result in growth and personal understanding of one's responsibilities and privileges within the University community and the greater community. All students must follow these standards. Students who violate these standards will be subject to severe disciplinary actions. These procedures are designed to provide fairness to all who are involved in the conduct process. All club members, officers and coaches are responsible for understanding the "Code of Conduct" and policies and procedures put forth in the CU Collegiate Sport Clubs Operations Manual. These policies and procedures must be adhered to at all times and ignorance will not be tolerated as an excuse.
